I am a non-binary LGBTQ+ voice actor, casting director and voice director, dedicated to diverse and inclusive casting. With a decade of experience in the professional animation and interactive voice-over industry in various positions, I am confident in my abilities and looking forward to contributing and helping to bring a creator's vision to life! I have experience working directly with studios and production companies, including a vast knowledge of ADR material, a strong familiarity with the recording process, and a base understanding of SAG-AFTRA rules and regulations.

CASTING DIRECTOR

Various Companies: 2021 - Present

- I provided a diverse actor database including many of the voice-over industry's top talent.
- Drafted audition material, distributed those sides to the talent, and facilitated the entire audition process alongside the client.
- Communicated all submission requirements to the talent throughout the entire casting process to ensure high quality.
- Collected and organized hundreds of audition files for review to ensure high quality audio and proficient talent based on the client's needs.
- Sifted through audition files and narrowed down the top choices for the client to make the final decision.
- Handled all communications with the selected talent, created production schedules for the actor recording sessions and tracked talent availability to help maintain the casting calendar.
- Gathered and organized audio materials including actor voice reference files and created pronunciation guides to ensure consistency with each recording session.

VOICE DIRECTOR

Various Companies: 2021 - Present

- Gave timely voice direction to the actors in order to deliver the client's vision.
- Handled all communications with the selected talent, created production schedules for the actor recording sessions and tracked talent availability to help maintain the casting calendar.
- Prepped recording session materials, gathered and organized pronunciation guides and relayed the necessary information to the actors in a timely manner.
